Dear Sir:

If you are at heart a coin collector, I think it would be to your best interest to join the two large coin organizations in this country, The American Numismatic Society has a museum and library at the disposal of members. The dues are $6.00 a year. The Society issues monographs at various times during the year, more than equal the dues in value.

Another organization, known as The American Numismatic Association, issues a monthly magazine called The Numismatist. The dues, including subscription to the magazine, are $3.00 a year. I am enclosing application blanks for both organizations. Neither society issues any free literature. If you find time you might visit this Museum, which is open every afternoon except Mondays.

Very truly yours,

Curator

To the Secretary of
